MODUS

ELECTRIC

The electric only version of our classic Modus column radiator is now available with a wifi heating element to fully comply with the new EcoDesign Directive legislation. Lot 20 is new EU legislation designed to remove inefficient technologies and reduce the energy used by products that heat our homes. This will help to achieve the UK's overall carbon reduction targets. The radiator and element are available in a massive selection of finishes to suit your exact requirements. To see exactly which colours are available on each product, please see pages 149 & 150 for the radiator finishes and pages 138 & 140 for the elements - E: sales@dqheating.com - T: 01842 810833 - W: www.dqheating.com
